RATIFIED BY CHINA.

That Nation Satisfied with the Newly Made Treaty.

MINISTER YANG YU NOTIFIED.

The Official Document of Ratification Now on the Way to the United States, and the Treaty Will Doubtless Become Law Within the Month.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Notification was given to the government in an informal way of the ratification by the Chinese government of the new treaty between the United States and China, which was negotiated by Secretary of State Gresham and Chinese Minister Yang Yu and ratified by Senate on the part of the United States. Only the formal exchange of ratifications between the department of state and the minister is to be transacted for the purpose of making the treaty the law governing the relations of the two powers, and this certainly will doubtless take place within the month.

Minister Yang Yu called upon Secretary Gresham last week and said to him that he received word from his government that it had ratified the treaty, and that the document had been forwarded to him; also that he had received instructions to exchange ratifications with the United States as soon as it was delivered to him.

The treaty, with the Chinese seal and signatures, was sent from Pekin about four weeks ago, being forwarded by way of Shanghai. In the ordinary course of communication, six weeks would be required for its transmission to Washington, so that it is not expected at the legation for two weeks, the minister said.

This is the first authentic information received in this country regarding the action of the Chinese authorities on the treaty. So long a time has elapsed since the treaty was drawn that speculations had begun to float about in semi-official circles whether the Chinese authorities intended to ratify the treaty, whether they were not dissatisfied with it or were not delaying the exchange of ratification to serve some diplomatic purposes of their own.

It would seem from the information given to the secretary of state by the Chinese minister that the speculations have been without much ground. As the diplomatic business of the government is, from its nature, transacted secretly, Minister Yang Yu's communication to the secretary of state was not made known until Secretary Gresham's attention was called to the speculation abroad concerning the course of the Chinese government.

Then Secretary Gresham gave to the Associated Press reporter that statement of the matter, and said in effect, that the reports that there was any cause for dissatisfaction over the way China was proceeding toward the consummation of the treaty were entirely groundless.

British Merchantman Released.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—A dispatch from Santiago states that owing to the protest of Great Britain the French-Yankee captured the steamer the Thomasi—Yankee has captured the steamer Prado recently seized by a Chinese warship in connection with the Boxer rebellion. The owners of the steamship Prado are represented for the second time in the Argus. The Prado is a steamer of 1,000 tons, which has been seized by Capt. Prince King, the commander-in-chief of the fleet of the Tung Li Yamen, and the president of the admiralty as a general committee to conduct the war operations.

McCoochick's Heavy Sentence.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Oct. 1.—Michael McCoochick, the Butcher, who was convicted of murder in the second degree on Thursday, was sentenced Saturday. Judge Rice said the evidence was sufficient to have convicted the man of murder in the first degree, and sentenced McCoochick to eighteen years solitary confinement in the Eastern penitentiary. This is the heaviest sentence for a second degree murder ever imposed in this county. McCoochick accidentally killed a child during a fight with a number of his countrymen.

Farmers' National Congress.

WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 1.—The farmers' national congress, comprised of delegates from every state in the union appointed by the governors, will meet in Parkersburg tomorrow and remain in session until Saturday evening. Great preparations are being made by citizens of Parkersburg for the reception of delegates, and the several hundred representative farmers from all parts of the country have already begun to arrive. An address of welcome will be delivered by Governor McCorkle.

Accused of Ballot Box Stuffing.

PATRICK, N. J., Oct. 1.—Factory Inspector James Keyes has caused the arrest of James O'Donnell and James Hardiman, charged with ballot box stuffing. O'Donnell was judge of the Eighth ward primary election held Tuesday, while Hardiman was inspector. Keyes asserts that votes to be cast from the hands of the printer were placed in the box to legally.

CARDINAL GIBBONS ON LABOR.

The Workingmen, He Says, Are the Great Losers by Strikes.

FROSTBURG, Md., Oct. 1.—Cardinal Gibbons, in a sermon on the labor question yesterday, said in part:

"Before the coming of Christ manual labor was held in degradation, and related to slaves, as being unworthy of freemen. Christ our Savior has dignified and ennobled labor by word and example. He was pleased to devote many years of his life to mechanical pursuits, and ever since he worked in the carpenter shop he shed a halo around the work-shop. If the profession of a general was ennobled by a Washington, if the profession of a statesman was ennobled by the example of a Webster and a Burke, if the profession of a jurist was ennobled by a Marshall and a Taney, if the vocation of a prelate was ennobled by the example of a Carroll, then the calling of a workingman is dignified by the example of Christ."

"Labor has its rights, chief among which is the privilege of organizing without infringing upon their employers. One of the most difficult questions in our time to discuss is the question of strikes. Strikes as experience has demonstrated, are very questionable for the laborers' grievances. Statistics furnished show that the loss to the employees by strikes for eight years amounted to nearly $78,000,000, while the employers lost only one-half this amount. I earnestly hope that some efficient remedy will be found to put an end to our recurring strikes, and arbitration seems to be the most potent method that can be conceived of."

Pennsylvania's Democratic Campaign.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 1.—The Democrats will open their campaign in this state in Pittsburgh about Oct. 26 and continue for two weeks a series of important receptions and meetings in the principal cities of the state. William M. Singerly, candidate for governor, will head a party of distinguished Democrats. They will travel in a special train, and after holding a meeting at Pittsburg will go to Erie and thence through the oil region. Visits will be made to the principal cities of the coal regions, and then will follow big meetings in the cities and towns along the line of the Pennsylvania railroad. Besides Mr. Singerly the party will include Governor Pattison, William F. Harlan, Attorney-General Hensel, ex-Congressman Sowden, ex-State Secretary Stenzer, John S. Riling, David F. Magee, W. W. Greenland, Thomas Conine and Henry Meyer.

The Storm at Atlantic.

ATLANTIC CITY, Oct. 1.—The northeast storm, which has been raging along the coast for several days, is increasing in fury. Heavy rains are playing havoc with the telephone and telegraph wires, and the surf is dangerously high. The water is on a level with buildings in the inner district, and is breaking over the boardwalk all along the ocean front. The electric railroad bridge across the beach has been washed out in several places on the lower end of the beach, and it is feared that the next storm or what will be, as it is rapidly becoming, the rain will wash over the remaining portion of the bridge. The railway line is now torn and tattered, and train travel is at a standstill.

Two Sensational Runaways.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 1.—Two sensational runaways, I suppose, are the occurrence reported at Chico, Calif., near here, where Patrick Lester was killed on the train there early Saturday afternoon at Rockwood, a small town about three miles from the mountains, where the carriages stopped. Robert Williams was internally injured and Mrs. Williams had her collarbone broken. Their little child was thrown over the railing of a bridge, the railway feet below, but suffered no further injury in a broken nose.

Veteran Pensioners Murdered.

DAYTON, O., Oct. 1.—Friday was pension day at the Soldiers' Home, and the veterans were paid $1,000. A few of them visited the dives in the vicinity of the institution, and were robbed severely. At 1 o'clock yesterday morning two old soldiers were found robbed and murdered and their bodies lying in the public road. Their names were Adelius Curgan, of Maryland, and John Barre, of the navy. The city police and detectives have fifty suspects locked up.

Mataram Captured by the Dutch.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 1.—Dispatches from Batavia announced that the Dutch, after eight hours' hard fighting, captured Mataram, the stronghold of the Balinese rebels. The Dutch loss was one lieutenant and twelve privates killed and four officers and forty-five privates wounded. The Balinese lost heavily.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. ... LOST ELEMENTS.

Aggravated by Anxiety Over His Son, the Grand Duke George.

VIENNA, Oct. 1.—The Tagblatt publishes a letter from St. Petersburg stating that the czar is suffering with two distinct maladies. He has been affected for some time with highly developed neurasthenia, coupled with anemia. When the attacks are severer than usual his whole household is alarmed. The second disease was long in developing. At first it was taken for diabetes, then Brights disease, and finally for a tuberculous affection of the kidneys.

The kidney affection was aggravated recently by a cold contracted during a night visit to his son, Grand Duke George.

On the night of Grand Duke George's arrival at Vienna the czar visited a physician office at 1 o'clock in the morning and sent a telegram to Abbotsbury inquiring after Grand Duke George's health. His majesty waited at the office for an hour and a half for the reply, which proved unsatisfactory. He returned to his bedroom and throwing himself into a chair exclaimed: "Oh, God, what have I done to be so severely punished."

On the night of Grand Duke George's arrival at Vienna the czar visited his room after everybody had retired for the night, passing half dressed through the cold corridors. He watched his sleeping son for a long time with the result that he caught a chill.

MUTINIOUS GERMAN OFFICERS

Nearly Two Hundred Arrested for Insubordination by the Emperor's Order.

BERLIN, Oct. 1.—A hundred and eighty-three non-commissioned officers belonging to the chief gunnery school were arrested for insubordination Saturday night. The commander of the gunnery school is disliked on account of his severity. Having lately noticed the growing spirit of insubordination he called the non-commissioned officers together and severely reprimanded them. This was on Friday night. The men subsequently became noisy and troublesome, and the commander visited their rooms and ordered that they be silent. The men became insolent and openly refused to obey the orders. They became threatening, and the commander drew his sword in self defense. This had the effect of restoring order.

The commander immediately telephoned to Emperor William, who ordered the arrest of the mutineers. The Fourth regiment of the guards was summoned and surrounded the school Saturday night. The non-commissioned officers were aroused and went into the court yard, where the commander addressed them, saying: "You are all prisoners. Everybody who tries to escape must abide the consequences."

All the prisoners were escorted to the railway station at 3 o'clock in the morning and sent to the Magdeburg fortress. The commander immediately telephoned to Emperor William, who ordered the arrest of the mutineers. The Fourth regiment of the guards was summoned and surrounded the school Saturday night. The non-commissioned officers were aroused and went into the court yard, where the commander addressed them, saying: "You are all prisoners. Everybody who tries to escape must abide the consequences."

Flying Jim's Wonderful Mile.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Flying Jim made a wonderful showing here yesterday. Aulie McDowell was working him, and had him hitched to a high wheeled pneumatic wagon with a running mate hitched. The pair rode several times and finally McDowell gave the word to those who were in the grandstand. The gelding paced away beautifully. He went to the half in 1 minute and finished the last half in 40 seconds. The performance was as excited by men as it was by the spectators.

"An exciting incident occurred when I left the ring, that is its serious aspect," said Jim. "A woman came up to me and asked me to go with her. I said: 'I can't.' She said: 'The young lady was trying to get away and got into a difficulty with me. I am afraid she will be in trouble.'

"I am afraid she will be in trouble."

Fatal Flood in Cuba.

HAVANA, Oct. 1.—The Sagua river overflowed its banks and the city of Sagua La Grande is doomed. Many of the residents of the city have been drowned, and the damage to property is immense. More than seventy houses have been carried away, and many others have been damaged. Thousands of persons saved themselves by taking refuge on the roofs of their houses whence they were rescued by passing boats. The water in the streets is now six feet deep.

The Samoan War Ended.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—The rebellion is at an end. Tamasese and the rebel chiefs made submission to King Malietoa on board the British warship Curacao on Aug. 28. Submission and the surrender of R. P. F. were the only terms imposed. It is not expected that peace will last long. One British and two German warships will remain at Apia until the hurricane season.

Suppressing Austrian Socialists.

VIENNA, Oct. 1.—The socialists of the city held a demonstration in the Ringstrasse in front of the house of parliament. A labor song, the chorus of which demanded universal suffrage, was sung. The singing had the effect of rendering the crowd restive, and the police intervened and dispersed the meeting. Fourteen of the leaders were arrested.

A FATAL OPERATION.

A Young Woman Drops Dead from a Doctor's Chair.

PROBABLY KILLED BY COCAINE.

She Was Undergoing a Painful Process for the Removal of Facial Blemishes, and the Drug Was Used to Lessen Her Suffering.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Belle White, 24 years of age, daughter of Benjamin S. White, a wealthy lumberman of Grand Rapids, Mich., died at Wood's hotel while undergoing treatment for the removal of facial blemishes. Death was caused, it is supposed, by the use of cocaine to deaden the pain from the application of an electrical current which constituted the means of treatment.

The operator was Dr. Sophie Santa, of the Dr. Sophie Santa company. Eliza A. James, the business partner of Dr. Santa, was assisting in the operation at the time. Dr. Santa held the electric needles, and in the other sponge saturated with a 4 per cent solution of cocaine, which she applied at intervals to deaden the intense pain caused by the needle.

Judge Brentano's daughter was playing in the back yard Thursday afternoon when another bullet crashed into the rear of the house, coming evidently from the same direction as the first. Friday night Judge Brentano himself was the one who came near being killed. He was in the kitchen in front of the same window before which his wife was standing on Wednesday evening. The third bullet from the revolver of the unknown miscreant came through the window pane about six inches from the hole made by the first piece of lead. The bullet missed Judge Brentano's head by about three inches and went into the wall close to the first one.

Judge Brentano has been on the super court bench of Cook county for about four years. He is the judge who tried the Prendergast case, but does not believe that his connection with that trial has anything to do with the shooting. Detectives are at work on the matter.

Malicious Officials Charged with Fraud.

ELICOTT CITY, Md., Oct. 1.—The grand jury brought in indictments against Dr. John W. Hebb and President Robert H. Dobbin and ex-Treasurer John Emory Hill, of the school board. Dr. Hebb already under indictment for unlawfully receiving $900 for vaccination of pauper school children is charged with unlawfully drawing $100 in excess of his salary as school commissioner of $100 per year. President Dobbin, who is postmaster of the United States senate, is indicted for unlawfully drawing $74 in excess of his salary, and ex-Treasurer Hill is indicted for embezzling $450. Indictments were also returned against the three for conspiracy to embezzle $230 from the school funds.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

FULL TEXT OF THE PLATFORM ADOPTED BY THE DEMOCRATS OF THE Empire STATE.
A Strong Arrangement of Republicans—Portraits of the Candidates.

The Democratic party of New York congratulates the people of the state upon the restoration of business confidence and the improvement of industrial conditions which are following the repeal by a Democratic congress of the panic bringing laws of its Republican predecessors.

Unsound financial legislation, driving out our gold and threatening single silver standard, a worse than war tariff, unnecessarily adding to the cost of living diminishing federal revenues and overtaxing favored industries at the general expense; profligate expenditures, converting an assuring treasury surplus into an alarming deficit—these were the ill conceived and ill fated products of Republicans and partisanship which brought the country to the verge of financial and industrial ruin, which wiped out private fortunes, reduced incomes, turned tens of thousands of men out of work, closed factories, destroyed business, brought thousands of deserving poor face to face with starvation and inflicted general distress upon the American people. The complete transfer of the government to the Democratic party was too late to avert these terrible evils. It could only remove the causes and repair the injury.

We therefore rejoice that by the repeal of the Sherman law for the purchase and storage of silver bullion all fear of a depreciated currency has been allayed and faith has been restored in the ability of the government to maintain a constant parity between its gold and silver coinage, that by the repeal of the McKinley tariff law the inordinate taxation of the many for the benefit of the few has been notably diminished, and in the place of inequitable and monstrous customs duties, which have starved some industries and overfed others, the tariff schedules have been adjusted so that, while affording ample safeguards for American labor, they reduce the price to the people of necessities of life and encourage the promotion of industry by cheapening the cost of raw materials used in manufactures, and that by reduction in expenditures wherever possible and by provision for additional revenues the legitimate demands upon the federal treasury will no longer exceed the government's income and necessitate an increase in the public debt.

The beneficial effects of the adoption of these salutary measures of public policy are already plainly apparent. Each day gives evidence of returning prosperity. Mills closed by the effects of Republican legislation are reopening, and their operatives are returning to work. Merchants report a largely increasing volume of business, and manufacturers are preparing for that period of prosperity which the readjustment of the tariff and cheaper raw materials certainly assure.

We concur with President Cleveland that the new tariff law does not embody the full measure of tariff reform, but with him also we endorse its provisions for cheaper and freer raw materials and lower taxes as a substantial recognition of Democratic principles, and we bespeak for the law an impartial trial confident that its successful operation will convince the people of the wisdom of Democratic policy and induce them to demand its proper extension. With favoring therefore such wise legislation and readjustment of party line schisms by the enforcement of separate state's rights policies and the fulfillment of Democratic pledges it is required, we desire, in pending a fair trial of the law's actual operation, any for the general welfare of the nation, which under present conditions would be likely to retard improvement in business, and thereby prolong the evils brought upon the country by Republican folly.

We commend the enactment by the Democratic Congress of other measures designed to be introduced as demanded by the people, including the repeal of the federal election law and the stringent legislation for the suppression of trusts. We re-affirm the dedication of principles contained in the Democratic national platform of 1892, and we reiterate the expression of recent Democratic platforms in favor of honest money, even in public expense, just and liberal provisions for all disabled Union soldiers, their widows and dependents, and strict adherence to the true principles of civil service reform.

We commend the efforts made by the senators and representatives in congress from this state to avert the imposition of the present income tax, and we record our regret that the reform of the tariff, to which all Democrats were committed, was embarrassed by grafting on its provisions a direct tax to which many Democrats were strenuously opposed.

We recognize in the trusts and combinations, which are designed to enable capital to secure more than its just share of the joint product of capital and labor, a natural consequence of the prohibitive taxes which prevent the free competition which is the life of honest trade, but believe their worst evils can be abated by law, and we demand the rigid enforcement of the laws made to prevent and control them, together with such further legislation in restraint of their abuses as experience may show to be necessary.

We heartily endorse the honest purpose and high ideals which have characterized the administration of President Cleveland, and we renew to him the pledge of our earnest support in all his efforts to secure the enactment of Democratic measures and the carrying out of Democratic policies. We have confidence that the people of the state by their expression at the polls in November will sustain his administration, and by the re-election of Democratic representatives in congress show their appreciation of faithful service and their condemnation of that Republican incompetence which was responsible for the financial panic of 1893.

The Republican record of control in this state is one of gross partisanship, inefficiency and hypocrisy. The party's return to power in both branches of the legislature was marked by a legislative session barren of general legislation for the public benefit and unsupervised in its manifestations of greed for political spoils and private plunder.

Professing devotion to the principle of home rule, the Republican party prostituted legislative power to political attacks upon Democratic cities and passed bills legislating out of office nearly 1,500 Democrats appointed or elected by local authority, thereby outrageously interfering with local self-government and attempting to establish Republican minority rule in Democratic municipalities.

Alleging iniquities in Democratic state offices, it appointed committees with expensive counsel to ransack every department not occupied by Republicans and has been obliged reluctantly to confess that there were no iniquities to expose.

Where the Casino Chart Can be Found. The chart for the advance sale of tickets for the Casino Theatre will hereafter be found at H. S. Dusenberry & Son's jewelry store, 4 North street.

Hungry for political patronage, it was willing to jeopardize the annual appropriation bill for the support of government by insisting upon a "rider" requiring a Republican attorney general to appoint all counsels employed by Democratic state officers.

Proclaiming friend-ship for workingmen, it threatened in the legislature the abolition of state bureaus established in the interest of labor and now in its platform covertly renew's this unwarranted attack. While thousands of honest workingmen were out of employment it refused to appropriate necessary moneys for the prosecution of public works, which would have properly relieved distress in many a toiler's family. No legislation desired by corporations was refused, but bills urged for the amelioration of labor were contemptuously rejected.

Pretending devotion to economy, it increased the appropriations for state offices 35 per cent during the first year of their control by Republicans, and through its constitutional convention has recommended to the people the revisions which will, if adopted, greatly increase the cost of maintaining the state government.

In order to secure a low tax rate, it withheld necessary appropriations, reduced the appropriations for the promotion of agriculture, for the canals and for the labor bureau, denied further appropriation for presenting a record of the valorous deeds of our Union soldiers, refused money for improving the sanitary condition of the capitol, postponed until next year the payment of the extravagant expenses of more than 20 investigating committees and mortgaged next year's tax levy by intentionally making unavailable until another year large appropriations granted for charities, reformatories and quarantine.

Professing to favor honest elections, the Republican party refused to put into legislation the recommendations of the Democratic governor for an extension of the corrupt practices act and a requirement of personal annual registration in towns and villages, to the end that election frauds might be prevented, and has fitly supplemented that refusal by choosing as its candidate for governor a gentleman whose principal qualifications for the office are believed to be his ability to buy it and his subserviency to the man who compelled his nomination. We appeal to the manhood of the electors of New York to resent this reflection upon their intelligence and to prove to their fellow countrymen that in this state brains, not wealth: fitness, not mediocritv, are the qualifications required for election to high office.

Denouncing inconsistently as a Democratic gerrymander the last legislative apportionment, so fair nevertheless that under it a Republican legislature and Republican constitutional convention were chosen, the latter body, disregarding its high obligation, has devised and dares of the people a Republican gerrymander which makes outrageous discriminations against Democratic localities, denies the cities of the state fair representation, deprives the people of a new enumeration and a new apportionment until 1900, and by these partisan devices seeks to rivet Republican control on the state for at least a decade, no matter how large the popular majority in opposition. Against such high handed partisanship we protest and invite all good citizens to join with us in our effort to deliver the state from this proposed political bondage.

We condemn the Republican constitutional convention for the rank partisanship which has characterized its proceedings, for its subserviency to corporate influences, for its contumacious disregard of the interests of labor, for its refusal to grant to cities a larger measure of home rule, for the scandals which its acts have created and for its conspicuous failure to satisfy public expectations by an intelligent and nonpartisan revision of the constitution.

We reaffirm the principles contained in our party platform of 1892 and preceding years. We believe in simple, honest and frugal government, individual liberty, genuine home rule for municipalities, elevation of standards in the civil service, a revision of the tax laws, an honest ballot and a fair and honest development of agriculture, the protection of the steeling of labor interests—the protection of men, all necessary public improvements, including the maintenance and development of the canals, the suppression of monopolies in the manufacture and sale of necessary articles of life and the strictest accountability by every public officer.

We resolutely oppose all sumptuary legislation which needlessly interferes with the personal liberty or reasonable customs of the people and is now particularly threatened in the event of the election of the Republican candidates for governor and lieutenant governor. We believe in equitable excise legislation which carefully regulates the sale of intoxicating liquors, prescribes just fees for licenses and preserves all needed restrictions for the maintenance of order and the good of society. Such legislation we believe was incorporated in the present excise law, passed by a Democratic legislature and signed by a Democratic governor, and we oppose any attempt to repeal it for the purpose of substituting in its place a sumptuary law whose arbitrary and burdensome provisions are in needless restraint of individual liberty and are opposed to public sentiment and liberal public policy.

We favor all just legislation in the interest of labor. We commend Governor Flower for his rigid enforcement of the laws to prevent the competition of convict labor with that of freemen. We favor such amendment of the so called conspiracy laws as will make their provisions clear and easily understood, so that they may be intelligently obeyed and rendered impartial in their application.

We denounce as contrary to the spirit of our institutions any display of religious intolerance in political discussions. We deplore any attempt to proselyte candidates for office on the ground of religious belief by secret organizations or otherwise. The Democratic party, which has always stood for political and religious freedom, does not hesitate to condemn all efforts to create a distinction among citizens because of differences in faith as unworthy of an enlightened age and abhorrent to the instincts of American freemen.

We unreservedly endorse the popular, honest and intelligent administration of Governor Roswell P. Flower, and we record our expression of regret at his refusal to accept a renomination. His high character and conscientious purpose, his earnest devotion to the duties of his office, his keen interest in every phase of state administration, his decisive conduct in great emergencies, his resolute determination to secure the punishment of election offenders and his manly and unaffected personality have justly endeared him to the people of the state and have won their generous approbation. His close attention to public affairs has set a high standard for future governors, and he will retire to private life at the conclusion of his term with the well earned praise of the people and of his party.

Alleging iniquities in Democratic state offices, it appointed committees with expensive counsel to ransack every department not occupied by Republicans and has been obliged reluctantly to confess that there were no iniquities to expose.

Followed Advice and Was Cured.

In speaking of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite, Mrs. James E. Beach, of Rosendale, N. Y., says: "About seven years ago I was suffered from kidney disease, so sick and helpless, I could not walk a step. My physician could do me no good, so I began to use Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and from the very first dose I could see improvement, and it entirely cured. My husband used it for dyspepsia with excellent results. Favorite Remedy dissolves the excess of uric acid in the blood, thus curing disease. Most of the ailments people suffer with come from acid in the blood. For instance, rheumatism, dyspepsia, kidney, liver and urinary troubles, and the ills peculiar to women, all arise from this cause, and are cured by Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy."

NEWBURGH'S BANK ASSESSMENTS.

In Judge Brown's special term of the Supreme Court, in Newburgh, Saturday, a hearing was had in the application of the Columbus Trust Company for a writ of certiorari to secure the review of its assessment. The stock of all the banks in the city was arbitrarily assessed at 80, though that of the Newburgh National Bank has sold at 160 and 165 and of the Quassaic at 150 and 152, while that of the Trust company has been sold at an average price of 118, and that of the Highland National at about 120. The case will be submitted this week.

A Very Amusing Comedy at the Casino, This Evening.

To-night, "Charley's Aunt" will be given at the Casino, with one of Charles Frohman's best companies. Even the details of stage business and costumes are used with such inventive ingenuity as to delight the artistic sense, and it would be hard for a seasoned theatre-goer to believe that a man in a woman's costume could successfully do the duty of perfect disguise with an effect both of the probable and the comical, yet all this is done in "Charley's Aunt." A crowded house is expected by the management.

Hancock Quarrymen Fail.

Stone & Hollywood, bluestone dealers and quarrymen at Tyler's Switch, near Hancock, have transferred their property to the Delaware Loan and Trust Company, of Walton, to secure an indebtedness of $9,000. The cause of their failure is understood to be their inability to collect $5,000 due them from John F. Kilgour, who recently made an assignment with debts of $30,000.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.For Governor, DAVID BENNETT HILL.
For Lieutenant Governor, DANIEL N. LOCKWOOD.
For Judge of the Court of Appeals, WILLIAM J. GAYNOR

In Kingston, Saturday, the registration was 617 greater than on the first day last year.

The Democrats of Deerpark, who are enthusiastic over the nomination of David B. Hill, will hold a ratification meeting at the Opera House, tomorrow night.

We present elsewhere the full text of the platform adopted by the Democratic State Convention. It is a plain and comprehensive statement of Democratic achievement and Democratic policy. Read it, if you wish to be thoroughly conversant with the issues of the campaign.

Broadstreet reports 9,251 failures for the first nine months of 1894, as against 11,140 for the corresponding period in 1893. The liabilities of the 1894 failures were $59,000,000, while for the same months in 1893 they were $37,000,000. The first nine months of 1893 were the months in which the mischievous legislation of Republican rule culminated in disaster to many business enterprises. The decline in the number and importance of the failures began with the correction of the Republican silver policy at the extra session of Congress, and the correction of the Republican tariff policy at the regular session. The good effects of these Democratic measures are shown beyond question by the diminished record of business misfortunes in the first nine months of this year.

When there is not a ghost of a chance of electing a straight-out Republican candidate Republicans at once become enthusiastic for non-partisan nominations for judicial office. Thus it was that the Republican judiciary convention for this district, which met in Brooklyn, Saturday, anticipated the action of the Democratic convention and renominated Hon. Edgar M. Oullen for Justice of the Supreme Court. Judge Cullen, by his ability, fairness and diligence in the discharge of his official duties, has won the confidence and esteem of the people of all the counties of this judicial district that he was certain of re-election, even without Republican endorsement, but a re-election without opposition is a recognition of his worth and popularity that will encourage him to greater zeal and fidelity in the service of the people.

The strong wind and dark clouds of yesterday were the tail end of the belated West Indian cyclone. Along the coast, north of Atlantic City, the wind attained the severity of a gale and was accompanied by a very high tide. At Coney Island, part of the outer bulkhead, which protects the Brighton Beach Hotel, was washed away, and the inner bulkhead was badly damaged. The outside track of the Marine Railway, between Brighton and Manhattan Beach, was wrecked. The total damage done at the Island is estimated at $75,000. On the New Jersey coast much damage was done, and from New England points come tidings of stiff gales and high tides. The Weather Bureau's faith in the coming of the cyclone is justified at length, though the storm's slow progress up the coast caused many to believe that it had spent its force or been swept out to sea.

CAME TO MIDDLETOWN FOR JUSTICE

A suit in Justice Wiggin's Court about the lease of a Port Jervis store.

A suit between Port Jervis parties is being tried before Justice John Wiggin, this afternoon. A man named Hubbard rented a store to one Fred Brown, who told him that he intended to open a hardware store. Brown paid $25 for one month's rent in advance.

When Brown's goods arrived it was found that he intended to open a dry goods store, and Mr. Hubbard would not allow him to do so, neither would he refund the money paid for rent, claiming that he had been damaged to that extent, as had he refused other parties who had desired to rent the store; hence the suit. John C. R. Taylor, Esq., of this city, appeared for Mr. Brown and H. B. Fullerton, Esq., of Port Jervis, for Mr. Hubbard.

Fitzsimmons Must Defeat O'Donnell Before He Will Meet Him—Not Worried About the Championship.

BY UNITED PRESS.

Boston, Oct. 1.—Corbett, in an interview, to-day, said that his decision not to meet Fitzsimmons until the latter had met O'Donnell was understandable.

He says that as a token of his good faith he will deposit $5,000 to meet Fitzsimmons should the latter defeat O'Donnell. He further declared that the Olympia Club had neither the right nor the power, as it had threatened, to take the title of championship from him and give it to Fitzsimmons. He added: "Fitzsimmons' talk about claiming the championship at the end of thirty days does not worry me in the least."

A NEW VANDERBILT TRUNK LINE.

The P., P. & B. to Be Connected With the Vanderbilt Lines in Pennsylvania.

A Reading, Pa., dispatch says: William C. Mayne, of Philadelphia, General Solicitor of the Blue Mountain Railroad, which is to be built from Harrisburg to the Delaware River at Portland, Pa., a distance of 140 miles, made the important statement, Saturday, that a corps of engineers will start at Sharterville, Berks county, next week and locate a different line to Slatington, to connect with the Poughkeepsie road, which is to be sold to the Vanderbilt system on Oct. 18.

This connection on the east, with an extension of the Norfolk and Western and of the Vanderbilt lines to the western terminus of the Blue Mountain Railroad, will complete, says Mr. Mayne, a system of trunk lines which for the interchange of freight and passengers by the South and West and the North and East has no equal in this country.

Seven Cases Discovered Since Saturday—All Traceable to the Haviland Case Which Terminated Fatally, Several Weeks Ago.

Word reached this city, Saturday, that three cases of small pox were discovered in Port Jervis, on that day, and a gentleman who came from there, this afternoon, states that four additional cases have been reported, to-day. The seven cases are in five houses.

Several weeks ago, a resident of Port Jervis named Haviland, contracted the disease at Rutherford, where he went to see a brother who was sick, and who broke out with small-pox a day or two after the visit. Mr. Haviland was taken sick about a week after his return to Port Jervis, and symptoms of small pox showing themselves, he was quarantined. He died after a sickness of ten days or two weeks, and the house in which he had been sick was thoroughly disinfected.

As time passed and no new cases of the disease occurred, it was hoped and believed that all danger of contagion was passed, when the health authorities were startled by the discovery of three cases of the dread disease, Saturday, followed by four more yes erday. All the cases can, we are told, be traced to the Haviland case.

The health authorities have done all that they can to prevent the further spread of the disease.

EXCELSIORS AT CHURCH.

Annual Sermon by the Chaplain, Rev. Dr. Beattie—An Earnest Appeal for Better Lives and a Noble Manhood.

Thirty-eight members of Excelsior Hook and Ladder Co., No. 1, attended the Second Presbyterian Church, last night, to listen to the annual sermon by the chaplain, Rev. Charles Beattie, D. D.

Before the sermon "The Harbor Bell" was sung by Miss Nettie Clark, with fine effect.

Dr. Beattie took for his text the first and second verses of the 12th chapter of Hebrews, part of Paul's exhortation to faith, patience and godliness. After an eloquent exordium in which he spoke of Paul's having likened the Christian's running of the race set before him to the efforts of the contestants in the Olympian games to win the laurel wreaths of victory, Dr. Beattie said:

You are organized to save,—to save homes and lives and nobly have you done your duty. Were there no firemen we would have no city.

Would I could present this to the cloud of witnesses more strongly.

Without the firemen we would have no insurance, and would feel our property and lives constantly imperiled. Now when we hear the fire bell in the night we count the strokes, and if they locate the fire even at a little distance from our homes, we turn over in our beds and go to sleep trusting to the noble firemen to stand between the fire and our property.

It is a noble mission to stand between property and life and fire.

But the text sets forth a salvation which is greater and nobler than saving property from fire, a salvation which leads to eternal life, which contemplates a perfect being in a perfect home.

What are the conditions of this race? "Lay aside the sin which doth so easily beset us." When the fire bell is heard we lay aside whatever we may be engaged in and whatever may impede our running and join in the race to the scene of the fire.

Four things we must fling away if we would run with success. The first is sin. What have we, young men, to do with sin? Why shouldn't our careers be blameless? There is no excuse for us to sin with Christ in the world.

The flesh is another thing to get rid of if we would run successfully. The athletes put it off—the superfluous and unhealthy flesh, the kind made on beer, bad habits and excesses of all kinds.

We must get rid of self-righteousness. We are applauded and praised on every hand and it tends to make us feel we are about right. We should not settle down to feeling that we do not need the righteousness of Christ.

Said the speaker, and his voice trembled with emotion: "My boys, we are all sinners and all need Christ's blood. Don't let self-righteousness interfere with accepting it."

We must get rid of selfishness. The spirit of self-sacrifice that is shown on the Corinthian play grounds is an admirable one to have in the race for eternal life.

"Strip and run," says the apostle. Like one on a steep and slippery incline which leads to a dangerous precipice, we can not stand still nor creep without constantly sliding toward death.

"Strip and run" and "look unto Jesus as your teacher, your trainer, your helper, your Savior and Redeemer, your all in all.

The end is sure. Looking unto Jesus bring life and salvation. In the athletic games but one may win. In this race there is a prize for all. God help us all to run successfully and stand at last beside the great apostle.

MEMORIALS IN GRACE CHURCH.

Wise and Timely Suggestions. Made by Rector Evans, Yesterday.

The Rev. David Evans in his sermon, yesterday morning, alluded to the restoration of Grace Church, now in progress, and suggested that memorials should be erected in it to the late Rev. Alexander Capron, a former much beloved rector of the church, and the late Eliza P. Wheeler, to whose munificence the parish was so much indebted in the past. The rector spoke as follows:

"Among the former rectors of this church was one who endeared himself by the devoted service of a long term of years to the great majority of our people. I could very easily fill a book with the affectionate tributes of regard to which I have listened in scores of homes to the memory of the Rev. Mr. Capron. May I suggest to those who so revere this good man's memory, the pious duty of raising a memorial to him in the church for which he labored so long. Why not erect to Mr. Capron's memory the altar that we so much need?"

"Then there is that other large hearted benefactor of the parish in the past, the loyal churchman and true Christian gentleman, Mr. Eliza P. Wheeler, who gave of his substance so royally to the church he loved so well. At present there is no tablet, or window, or any gift whatsoever to perpetuate his memory.

Why not set up a lectern to tell to future generations the story of his noble and useful life. I do not doubt, dear brethren, that both of these memorials, if properly advocated, would meet with your hearty approval and achieve a gratifying success."

SPIRITUAL OR CELESTIAL BODIES.

Dr. Darwood's Third Sermon on "Our Friends Beyond the Grave."

The subject of "Spiritual or Celestial Bodies" occupied Rev. Dr. Darwood's attention at St. Paul's Church last evening, the discourse being the third of the doctor's special sermons on "Our friends beyond the grave." An unusually large audience was present. The texts were selected from 1 Cor. xv:44; Phil. iii:21, and Psalms xvii:15.

"When the spirit leaves this body it will be given a body suited to its new needs, as this body is suited to its present needs," said the doctor. "The basis of the spiritual body now exists, but it is not yet glorified. The spiritual body will be a material body, notwithstanding the quibbling of men. It will be a body, and not a spirit. The spiritual body, if we die in Christ, shall be raised in glory. It will not be an exchange of one body for another, but glorious transformation of the present body.

Our present body is soon in weakness, subject to disease, but it will be raised in power, in eternal youth, and eternity itself will not seem long enough for the growth of character and expression of mind.

New possibilities will ever be stretching out beyond us. In this state our identity will not be destroyed, for identity does not depend on matter.

Our bodies are constantly undergoing change, yet our identity is not changed."

Dr. Darwood occupied forty minutes in the discussion of his theme, of which the foregoing is only a brief synopsis. In the morning he discoursed on the subject, "Does God now hear and answer prayer as formerly?" Next Sunday morning, the fourth sermon of the special series, will be given. Subject, "Shall we know them?"

A WOMAN IN THE CASE.

S. Victor Weeks and William Duryea fight in the Erie Depot—Weeks to Be Tried, To-morrow.

S. Victor Weeks and William Duryea engaged in a fight at the Erie depot on Saturday evening. Duryea came out of the scrap with a bad scalp wound and Weeks was arrested and locked up.

The injured man made a complaint of assault in the third degree and at the examination, this morning, the following story was told of the occurrence by several of the witnesses of the fight:

Mr. Duryea and his wife agreed to disagree some time ago and separated.

Mrs. Duryea has been living with an aunt at Howell's Depot for several weeks, and on Saturday night, when she went to the depot for the purpose of taking train 29 for home, she met Mr. Weeks, to whom she had been introduced some time ago.

A second cousin, a Mr. Crowe, was also there and he too was bound for Howell's. While the three were talking, Duryea, the husband, entered and, as his wife alleges, walked up to Weeks and after shaking his fist in his face and calling him a vile name said: "I've got you now." He followed his words with a "mash" in the face.

Weeks, who is lame and carries a crutch, retaliated by striking Duryea over the head with his stick. He repeated the dose several times and Duryea gave up the struggle.

Weeks, through his counsel, Herbert Gedney, Esq., demanded a jury trial, which was set down for tomorrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

A MODERN TALE.

CHAPTER 4.

Algeron had gone to the dear one of his heart when he knew that danger lurked in every corner. Yet love knoweth not fear. Tramp had been happy for a few brief moments, because her papa had gone down town. Al then knew this ere he had started to see her, because he had seen the old gent pass along in a street car.

But street cars go both ways. He had but taken her unresisting hand in his when she started violently and turned pale.

CHAPTER 5.

"It is pap!" she whispered in awe-struck tones.

Algeron heard the door open and rose to his feet. Papa glanced casually into the parlor on his way to the hatrack and saw Algeron. That was sufficient. He forgot the hatrack. Algeron was what he was looking for. Or rather he wasn't what he was looking for, because he had told him not to come there any more. However, why go into harrowing details?

CHAPTER 6.

Algeron limped sadly back to his apartments and was received there by his roommate.

"Ah!" he exclaimed, "been to see your best girl and home so early?"

Algeron nodded wearily.

"You look as if it had hurt you to come away," said his friend tauntingly.

"It did," sighed Algeron, but the friend did not comprehend all there was in Algeron's tones.

"That's right," he went on. "A fellow ought to feel that way. It's a good sign. You ought to get her. Her old man is well heeled, isn't he?"

Algeron fairly groaned.

"Confound it!" he ejaculated, "I don't know anything about his heel. All I know about is his toe."

Then, like a great light, the truth flashed upon Algeron's friend, and he rose and set down the arrack bottle.—Detroit Free Press.

AN "ARGUS" MAN OFF DUTY
AIMS AT SEVERAL SUBJECTS.

A Former Middletown Pastor Introduces Individual Communion Cup in His Church—An Objecting Church Member Talks of "Sterilized Christianity"—A Faith Curist Under Arrest—Old Time Firemen's Uniforms.

Rev. J. H. Gunning, at one time pastor of the First Baptist Church, this city, now pastor of the Bedford Avenue Baptist Church, Brooklyn, has induced his deacons to consent to the introduction of individual communion cups and they were used, yesterday, for the first time. The cups are of silver, gilt edged, and something like egg cups in shape. It was not without a hard struggle that Mr. Gunning carried his point in regard to the introduction of the cups, but the fact that he had once been a doctor lent weight to his arguments against the dangers to health that attended the use of the common communion chalice. The opposition which he encountered was a curious compound of conservatism and of religious enthusiasm, which professed to believe that God would protect his people from harm at the communion table even though they drank from cups swarming with microbes, and found its expression in caustic words that it was hard to answer.

A sample of the opposition which Dr. Gunning encountered may be found in the following extract from the talk which one of his church members, a very devout but not at all progressive man, had with a reporter, Saturday.

"To me the real trouble seems to be that when men begin exalting their own sanitary safety,—real or imaginary,—above all other considerations, spiritual or humane, we shall have to keep ourselves fenced off from our Christian obligations by a perpetual and skeptical quarantine. We shall have to keep the sick and the diseased at arm's length. We shall have to visit those who are dying of contagious maladies by proxy. We shall have to hand ourselves to our infected brethren with a pair of tongs, as well as answer all appeals in the name of Christ with the reply that we are only acting under our doctor's orders. This new theory of our own enormous importance, carried to its logical conclusion, would justify us in turning over all Christian duties to a carefully-inoculated hospital corps, and we ought to refuse to worship God, according to this theory, in an atmosphere that has not previously been rendered antisepically safe by a spray of corrosive sublimate. I don't see my way clear, on the whole, to approve of Dr. Gunning's new idea,—a 'sterilized Christianity.'"

Mrs. Bessie T. Glenn, a faith curist, undertook for $50 to put a new lung in Sadie Ball, of Paterson, N. J., who had been sick with consumption for some time. Taking charge of the patient she threw out of the windows all the medicines left by the doctors who had been treating the girl. She read the Bible, preached and prayed with the girl and allowed her to "take wine as nourishment, but not as medicine." For a short time Sadie seemed to improve, but soon grew worse and died. A coroner, who has no faith in faith curists, investigated the case and the jury found that the girl died from want of proper medical attendance, and Mrs. Glenn has been arrested and held for trial under the law passed last winter for the suppression of mind healers, faith curists and other quacks and charlatans.

Excelsior Hose Company, of Kingston, has purchased new uniforms, which it will wear for the first time when it goes to Hudson, this week, to participate in a big parade. It couldn't be worth while noticing the new suits of Kingston firemen if it were not for the fact that the company adheres to the old style of firemen's uniform and has purchased red shirts and dark blue trousers. In these days, when the craze for costly semi-military uniforms has taken possession of so many fire companies, it is a pleasure to note that a company has the good sense to adhere to the inexpensive, serviceable and striking uniform, which volunteer firemen wore for so many years that it has come to be recognized as the distinctive uniform of firemen, and which, when a long line of firemen paraded, produced a striking effect which is altogether lacking when companies parade in suits of blue and gray and half a score of other lints and shades.

NEWBURGH HATTERS STRIKE.
Finishers and Trimmers in Ferry & Napier's Factory Go Out.
From the Newburgh Journal.

A strike occurred at Ferry & Napier's hat shop on Washington street, Saturday noon, and unless satisfactory arrangements can be made within a few days the large concern will probably be closed up. Every six months, according to the by-laws of the Hatters' Union, a settlement as to the scale of wages is to be made. The settlement comes due Monday, October 1st, at the Newburgh shop.

Last Tuesday the finishers held a meeting and decided that they would go out unless Mr. Ferry increased the scale that they are now working on. Mr. Ferry has not made known here what he will do.

The trimmers are also out. The sizers have concluded not to strike, and will work just the same as heretofore. They have been working nights lately on account of the large orders that they have ahead of them. The strike has been talked about for quite some time.

The Jewish New Year.

The Jewish New Year, 5655, began at sundown yesterday. The feast is known as Rosh Hashanah, and ushers in ten days of solemn observance ending in the great fast, Yom Kippur, or Day of Atonement. The stores of merchants of the Hebrew faith are closed to-day, and will not be opened until to-morrow. Divine services, conducted by Rabbi Solomon, were held in the rooms of the Hebrew congregation in the Opera House building, last evening and this morning. Many Hebrews from Goshen and other places attended the services.

A Frightened Horse and a Badly Smashed Wagon.

Both wheels of the buggy were broken and the shafts shattered. Mr. Scott was thrown out, but pluckily hung on to the lines and was dragged across the tracks. He was uninjured beyond a few bruises about the legs.

A Very Gratifying Showing.

The Ontario and Western's receipts from outgoing freights at the Middletown station for the month of September were $1,170.82 greater than they were for the corresponding month last year. This is unmistakable proof that Middletown is feeling the quickening effects of the return of business prosperity, and shares with the rest of the country in the good results that have followed from Democratic tariff reform.

ALL IN SCHOOL AGAIN.

New for Another Winter of Hard Brain Work.

EDUCATION TOO OFTEN OBTAINED AT THE EXPENSE OF NERVE FORCE.

Parents Study the Problem of Keeping Up the Health at School.

School has been open nearly a month.

The streets are crowded with "shining morning faces" full of eagerness and ambition.

Anxiety of parents begins. Will these young boys and girls stand the nervous strain?

Every year thousands of bright and interesting boys and girls are fatally injured by indiscriminate and excessive school work.

Pale lips, languor, little eagerness for play, irritability, and loss of strength, show that the close application is making sad inroads upon their health. There should be no delay in building up the child's system, and feeding the worn-out nerves with Paine's celery compound.

Parents find their children quickly gain strength and color and increase in weight from this remarkable nerve food. It is peculiarly suited to the needs of their weakened powers of digestion and assimilation.

During the school year thousands of children pursuing studies with an ambitious eagerness altogether out of keeping with their strength, have been enabled to keep in school and at work and to recover health and nerve strength by a careful use of Paine's celery compound, first prescribed by Dartmouth's great professor, Edward E. Phelps, M. D. LL. D. Parents who have studied the problem of how to build up their children's health while at school have found that Paine's celery compound brought vigor and strength by keeping the blood pure and the nerves and tissues richly nourished.

Physicians in all parts of the country earnestly recommend Paine's celery compound to parents.
